Third Sunday of Lent TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Hollywood has given us an image of Moses slipping off his shoes before a burning bush. God has just called Moses by name, and so that Moses doesn't miss the meaning of this breakthrough in human history, God requires that all barriers to the experience be eliminated. If you've ever tried to maneuver barefoot across hot sand, or pick your way along a rocky beach, you know how sensitive feet can be.

Within the Church, there are religious orders with a custom of going barefoot, not merely to show poverty, but to be an outward sign of a desire for connection with creation, a desire to go through life alert to what God is doing. In early days, when reconciliation was a once-in-a-lifetime possibility, penitents often went barefoot for a long period of time as a sign of their conversion. Even today, people follow an ancient practice of slipping off their shoes to walk in the procession to the cross on Good Friday. It is striking that the first use of our newly-scrubbed feet from Holy Thursday night is to walk resolutely in the footsteps of Christ to the cross.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

BRINGING CHRIST
Into your home Into your family
Into your life

Use the reading and reflection below to help your family better understand and dive a little deeper into this weekend's Gospel!

Think: One day Jesus told the people this parable: "A man went to check how much fruit was growing on a tree in his orchard, but he found that there was none. So he sent for his gardener and told him, 'This tree has grown no fruit for the last three years. Cut it down and plant another tree in its place!' But the gardener said to him, 'Master, give the tree one more year, so I can feed and care for it. Then if it still has no fruit on it, cut it down.'"

Challenge: The master of a house wanted to cut one of his trees down because it had grown no fruit for three years, and he wanted to plant another tree in its place. But the gardener asked his master to give the tree one more chance to prove itself. What was the gardener willing to do to help the tree to produce some fruit? The gardener would feed the tree and make sure it was well watered and cared for. The gardener was ready to do whatever he could to help the tree to grow some fruit and save it from being destroyed. What do you think the message of today's parable is? God is always ready to give us another chance to change and to grow the fruits of His love. Just as the gardener was ready to care for the tree and help it to grow fruit, so Jesus will help us to be kind, loving, generous, and forgiving, and able to bear the fruits of God's life and love in us. Lord, take my hand and show me the way. Help me to get up when I fall and to try again, knowing that you will always give me another chance. Amen.
